CALL FOR PAPERS / VOLUME 25 (2026)

WE ARE PLEASED to invite submissions for the 2026 issue of Mirgorod: The Annual of the History & Epistemology of Contemporary Literary Studies, scheduled for publication in December 2026.

The forthcoming issue will be primarily thematically focused on:

1. Postcolonial studies;
2. Biographism.

We welcome contributions engaging with either of these areas—whether independently or in dialogue—as well as submissions addressing the journal's broader thematic scope, encompassing the epistemological dimensions, history, and conceptual boundaries of literature and contemporary literary studies, the aesthetics of poetic language, and the philosophy of literary creation.

In addition to scholarly articles, we also encourage the submission of:

- book reviews;
- conference reports;
- critical essays addressing emerging debates in literary theory and methodology.

Deadline for submissions is 31 August 2026.

There are no publication fees.

All published content appears under the Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International Licence (CC BY-SA 4.0).

Detailed submission and formatting guidelines can be found on our website: www.mirgorod-journal.com (For Authors section).

We would be grateful if you could share this call for papers with colleagues and academic networks who might be interested.

For inquiries and submissions, please contact the Editorial Team at: mirgorod.press@gmail.com. All paper proposals should be sent to this address.

With best regards,

Roman Mnich & Filip Świerczyński
